John Holland wins two more building projects valued at $128m at Melbourne Airport

Melbourne, May 12, 2008 – John Holland is pleased to announce that Melbourne Airport has today exercised the option for John Holland to construct Project 2 of the Terminal 2 Expansion program. The option is for works valued at $85 million.

The announcement comes only months after John Holland was appointed head contractor for the construction of a new multistorey car park. Coupled together, the two projects represent $128 million in new work won with Melbourne Airport since December, 2007. Total building contracts underway by John Holland at Melbourne Airport total $245m.

John Holland Group Managing Director, David Stewart said: “The award of these two new contracts strengthens the strong relationship John Holland has developed with Melbourne Airport in recent years. We are very happy with the result of this process, and look forward to the successful delivery of the building program.”

General Manager of John Holland Southern Region, Peter Kessler, commented: “These new contracts are a vote of confidence in the work which has been carried out by John Holland to date.”
