

Chun Wo Construction

- listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange with a market capitalization of approximately HK$ 280 million
- an investment holding company with subsidiaries principally engaged in civil engineering, foundation and building construction, highway maintenance, airport maintenance, superstructure works, landfills restoration etc. in the Greater China region in both the public and private sectors
- civil engineering work includes roads & drainage, site formation, railway works, sea walls and marine construction, reservoirs and waterworks, landfill rehabilitation, and sewage treatment and disposal works.
- building works include projects in the public and private sectors. The company also undertakes specialist construction work & provides maintenance services to government and statutory bodies.
- For diversification, the Company has also developed its business in the field of fitting-out, renovation and maintenance works in civil engineering and building.

Hong Kong Construction

- listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange since 1987 with a market capitalisation of approximately HK$700 million
- formerly known as Kumagai Gumi (Hong Kong) Limited
- one of Hong Kong's largest publicly listed construction companies
- its businesses include construction, property development and investment, infrastructure, and hotel investment
- one of Hong Kong's most prestigious contractors reputed for its quality buildings and engineering capabilities.
- experienced in all categories of works including roads and drainage, reclamation, port works, water works, bridges, site formation, container terminals, power stations, buildings and interior decoration
- projects includes airports, expressways, power plants across the Greater China region
- major projects undertaken over the years include Hong Kong's new airport terminal building, the Lantau-linking Kap Shui Mun cable-stayed bridge, Hong Kong's major power station at Castle Peak, and landmark buildings such as Bank of China Tower and Cultural Centre in Hong Kong, Palace Hotel in Beijing, Di Wang Commercial Centre in Shenzhen, and CITIC Plaza commercial Centre in Guangzhou.
- considering incorporating B2B or B2C platforms

Wai Kee Holdings Ltd.

- listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange since 1992 with a market capitalisation of approximately HK$ 340 million
- a well-established presence in Asia's construction and infrastructure industries which provides civil engineering services, quarrying, produces construction materials and pre-cast blocks and provides marine engineering and transportation services

Paul Y-ITC

- listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange with a market capitalization of approximately HK$540million
- is a Hong Kong based contractor engaged principally in Hong Kong and also in New Zealand, China, Singapore, Malaysia, Vietnam, Papua New Guinea and Fiji
- engaged in civil engineering, building of bridges and highways and railways, tunnels and escalators, airport facilities, building, interior and renovation, restoration, restoration and demolition, contract drilling, infrastructure services

Hsin Chong

- listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange with a market capitalization of approximately HK$330 million
- engaged in construction work in Hong Kong, China, and Southeast Asia in both the private and public sectors
- provides piling and foundation work, superstructure construction, electrical and mechanical installation, renovation and fitting-out services work, civil engineering work etc.
- it has obtained a Qualification Permit in the People's Republic of China

IJM Corp. Berhad

- listed on the Main Board of the Kuala Lumpur Stock Exchange since 1986 with a market capitalization of approximately MYR 1,250 million
- one of the largest and most diversified construction groups in Malaysia.
- operations includes: construction, properties, manufacturing & quarrying, plantations, education, and international ventures
- construction remains as IJM's core business: it is now a construction supermarket specializing in infrastructure and building works ranging from piling & foundation, highways, roads & bridges, power, oil & gas, water supply, marine works, hospitals & medical centers, condominiums, hotels, resorts & clubs, residential, commercial & industrial complexes to preservation & refurbishment works.
- These works are complemented by industrial building systems, steel fabrication and the production & supply of building materials and rock products.

WCT Engineering Berhad

- listed on the Main Board of the Kuala Lumpur Stock Exchange, Malaysia since July 1999, but was previously listed on the Second Board since 1995. Current market capitalization estimated to be approximately MYR 225 million
- operations includes: civil engineering, specializing in earthworks for housing development, highway construction and related infrastructure works and investment and/or re-sale of investment properties, investment holding; trading of building materials; property development and dealing in machinery
- A registered "Class A" contractor with Pusat Khidmat Kontraktor (PKK), which allows it to bid for public projects of any size throughout Malaysia.

- Awarded Grade G7 status by the Construction Industry Development Board (CIDB) which qualified the Company to bid for and undertake an unlimited value of contracts for building and construction works

YTL Corporation Berhad

- a blue chip company listed on the Main Board of the Kuala Lumpur Stock Exchange, Malaysia since 1985.
- It also has a second listing on the Foreign Section of the Tokyo Stock Exchange, making it the first non-Japanese Asian company to be listed there.
- a dynamic conglomerate focussing on five core businesses namely power generation, construction contracting, cement manufacturing, property development and hotels as well as resorts and leisure
- it has a strong foundation in construction and construction-related industries (local and international)

DMCI Holdings

- listed on the Philippine Stock Exchange in 1995 with a market capitalization of approximately PHP 902 million
- a holding company with its business lines including: construction business, construction component companies, exploration, mining and development of coal resources etc.
- its construction business includes: concrete-based general construction, engineering services, industrial construction and heavy fabrication firms and infrastructure development that in turn generate construction business

PT Petrosea Tbk

- listed on the Jakarta and Surabaya Stock Exchange in Indonesia since 1990 with a market capitalization of approximately IDR 225 billion
- the first engineering and contracting company to go public in Indonesia
- a leading Indonesian engineering, construction and mining company
- was acquired by Australia's Clough Engineering limited in 1984
- operates in a wide diversity of industrial sectors and has been servicing local and international clients on project located throughout the Indonesian archipelago
- provides construction contracting and construction related services.
- Projects include industrial infrastructure, urban housing and high-rise and commercial buildings.